

REGULAR SESSION
(January 14, 2020)

Tuesday

2:30 PM

The regular session of the Wyoming County Board of Supervisors was held at the Wyoming County Government Center in the Board of Supervisors' Chambers located at 143 North Main Street, Warsaw, New York with all Supervisors present except for the Towns of Castile and Wethersfield. Also present were County Attorney Jim Wujcik, Budget Officer, Janis Cook; Clerk to the Board of Supervisors, Cheryl Ketchum and Deputy Clerk to the Board, Lisa Perez.

At 2:35 PM Chairman Davis, T/Covington, called the meeting to order.

Chairman Davis invited Supervisors Granger, T/Gainesville and Brunner, T/Java to escort the newly elected Supervisor from Genesee Falls, Supervisor, L. Roberts to her seat. The honorable Wyoming County Court Judge Michael Mohun provided the swearing in...

Chairman Davis explained the last 10 days have been difficult with the passing of Information Systems Specialist, Tom Pasquale; Town Supervisors Keith Granger, T/Castile and John Copeland, T/Wethersfield and asked that a moment of silence be recognized in their honor...

The Veteran leading the Pledge of Allegiance for this month's board meeting is:

Staff Sargent Charles F. Wixon Jr.

Mr. Wixon was born in 1956 and graduated from Rushford Central School in 1974. With his parents' permission, he joined the Air Force at age 17 in January of 1975. He completed basic training at Lockland Air Force Base in Texas and went on to Lowry Air Force Base in Colorado where he learned to be an Aircraft Armament System Technician.

Mr. Wixon's first duty station was Eglin Air Force Base, Florida where he spent four years working on Armament Development and Testing. Spanning six wars, Eglin has played a prominent role in airpower history. An airport was established in 1933, and in 1934, 1,460 contiguous acres was donated for the bombing and gunnery base. With the outbreak of war in Europe in 1939, General Henry H. "Hap" Arnold ordered the establishment of a proving ground for aircraft armament. Eglin was selected for the testing mission adding some 380,000 acres for the Air Corps Proving Ground where fighter pilots and gunnery training occurred. On 1 August 1968, the Air Proving Ground Center was redesignated the Armament Development and Test Center to centralize responsibility for research, development, test and evaluation, and initial acquisition of nonnuclear munitions for the Air Force. Eglin now hosts the 96th Test Wing, the Air Force's largest wing, houses all of Eglin's test and support functions.

Mr. Wixon was then transferred to Keflavik Naval Air Station in Iceland. There he spent two years intercepting Soviet Aircraft during the Cold War. He was transferred to McGuire Airforce Base, New Jersey just before returning home to Gainesville.

For his valor and courageous service to his country, Mr. Wixon was awarded the:

Air Force Commendation Medal
Professional Military Education Ribbon
Air Force Longevity Service Award
Air Force Good Conduct Medal w/1 oak leaf cluster

Mr. Wixon worked for 33 as a machinist starting at Ness Precision Products in South Warsaw, moving on to Humming Bird Toys in Arcade, and finally retired from Koike Aronson in Arcade. He married his wife Connie in May 1975 and has two sons and two grandchildren, with one on the way this April. Mr. Wixon enjoys playing the guitar and is a big baseball fan.

The pledge was said by all.

Chairman Davis invited Town of Gainesville Supervisor, D. Granger to join him in the presentation of the customary certificate of appreciation to Mr. Wixon and an opportunity to address the Board. At which time, Mr. Wixon thanked the Board, Director Harvey and Asst. Director Kruppa for their hard work and for all they do for the veterans...

There was a brief interruption of the meeting as attending press took pictures.
