Work procedures are well defined but incumbents must be alert to possibilities of emergency situations arising and exercise sound judgment when problems occur. This position differs from that of Correction Officer due to an increased level of responsibility and the presence of supervisory responsibilities. Supervision is received from a Correction Captain with leeway allowed for the exercise of independent judgment in dealing with day to day situations in the facility. Supervision is exercised over the work of an assigned group of Correction Officers. Does related work as required.

Subjects of examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

2. New York State minimum standards for correctional facilities

These questions test for knowledge of the NYS Minimum Standards for state, county and local correctional facilities that are promulgated by the New York State Commission of Correction in areas such as the admission/discharge, care, custody, movement, correctional treatment, security, supervision and discipline of all persons confined in these systems.

3. Coordinating appropriate responses to emergencies, disturbances and other unusual situations

These questions test for knowledge in such areas as: anticipating possible correctional emergency situations, responding to situations promptly and allocating staff where needed; notifying supervisors of situations when appropriate; acting within rules to alleviate problems as quickly as possible with minimum use of force; investigation the causes of incidents; submitting reports on incidents.

4. Supervising inmate correctional programs, services, visitation areas and correctional staff

These questions test for knowledge in such areas: coordinating programs with civilian staff; ensuring that all employees relate well to visitors and guests and answer their questions in accordance with facility rules; organizing and supervising special programs involving outside groups (e.g., Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, etc.) and ensuring full cooperation from employees. The questions may also deal with such areas: understanding new concepts and developments in the field of Corrections, and evaluating employees' capabilities and limitations on the job.

Calculators are allowed for this examination.
