ISSUED: January 21, 2020

LOCATION OF POSITION: The resulting eligible list from this examination will be used to fill vacancies as they occur within Wyoming County Highway Department. First consideration will be given to the promotional list.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT: Although no residency is required, preference in appointment may be given to candidates who are Wyoming County residents.

CERTIFICATION: Preference in appointment may be given to candidates who presently reside in a civil division or district where the vacancy exists in accordance with provisions of Sec. 23 (4-a) of Civil Service Law.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Either:

- (a) Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and one year of experience participating in the selection, creation and installation of traffic control devices; or
- (b) Two (2) years of experience participating in the selection, creation and placement of traffic control devices.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT: Possession of a valid New York State driver's license appropriate to the vehicles operated.

DUTIES: The work involves responsibility for supervising and participating in the installation and maintenance of traffic control signs or traffic safety devices on the County road system. Duties are performed under general supervision of the County Highway Superintendent following the guidelines set forth in the New York State Manual of Uniform Traffic Control Devices. Direct supervision is exercised over the work of subordinates assisting in the placement of road signs. Does related work as required.

Subjects of examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Pavement marking for traffic control purposes

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in pavement marking for traffic control purposes and may include such areas as types of equipment, procedures, and paints used, and proper legal markings to use to guide and direct vehicular traffic.

2. Materials, equipment and methods used in producing traffic and street signs

These questions test for knowledge of the distinctive characteristics legally required for various types of traffic and street signs and for knowledge of the materials and processes used to produce these signs.

3. Placement, positioning and maintenance of traffic control devices

These questions test for knowledge of the various types of traffic control signs and pavement markings used to guide and direct vehicular traffic and the proper placement and maintenance of such signs and markings.

4. Safety practices

These questions test for knowledge of the various types of traffic control signs and pavement markings used to guide and direct vehicular traffic and the proper placement and maintenance of such signs and markings.

5. Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to take a written test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm

The use of a quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculator is allowed. Devices with typewriter keyboards, "Spell Checkers," personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

SABBATH OBSERVERS/DISABLED CANDIDATES/MILITARY MEMBERS: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who having duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination for Civil Service employment by the State of New York or any of its subdivisions and who due to active military duty is deprived of the opportunity to compete in such examination shall be provided with an opportunity to compete, under terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the State Department of Civil Service or Municipal Commission, by way of a special military make-up examination.

This examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, Rules and Regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations will apply to this examination.

Current members of the Armed Forces may apply for Veteran's credits by filing an application for Veteran's Credits (Form VC-1). Proof of military status must also be presented and verified in order for consideration of granting of "conditional" Veteran's credit. Acceptable proof may include a military I.D. card, military orders, or others official military document that substantiates active military service at time of exam. This documentation and VC-1 Form must be received prior to the establishment of the Eligible List for this examination. The "conditional" status of the additional credits will remain until proof is provided indicating that the service was in time of war and that the veteran received an honorable discharge, or was released under honorable circumstances.

VETERANS: Disabled and non-disabled war veterans who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veteran credits with EACH application for examination. Candidates who wish to claim veteran credits on an examination should request an application and information sheet from the Wyoming County Civil Service Office. Veteran's application forms will also be available upon request at the examination center. The completed forms must be received before the eligible list for this examination is established in order to utilize additional credits.

In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.
