There is 1 case residing in another location, now recovered

The Wyoming County COVID-19 Response Line can be reached at 786-8911 from 8am to 5pm, Monday through Friday. The local response line is a resource for Wyoming County residents to obtain updated information and guidance during the COVID-19 response. Callers will be connected to reliable information and available services close to home. Our number one priority remains the health and welfare of Wyoming County residents as COVID-19 is impacting our entire community. We're in this together, and we'll get through this together. Keep doing your part to keep Wyoming County safe.

Jerry L. Davis, Chairman of the Board
