WYOMING COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE
EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT

Network Administrator

Exam #21238 OC

SALARY: Varies within departments.

EXAMINATION TO BE HELD:

February 15, 2021

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED TO:

January 15, 2021 by 4:00 pm in this office or postmarked by 1/15/21.

ISSUED: December 15, 2020

LOCATION OF POSITION: The resulting eligible list from this examination will be used to fill vacancies as they occur within the Wyoming County Departments.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT: Although no residency is required, preference in appointment may be given to candidates who are Wyoming County residents.

CERTIFICATION: Preference in appointment may be given to candidates who presently reside in a civil division or district where the vacancy exists in accordance with provisions of Sec. 23 (4-a) of Civil Service Law.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Graduation from high school or possession of a graduate equivalency diploma (GED) AND:

- (a) Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with an Associate's Degree in Computer Science, Information Technology, or a closely related field, and one (1) year full time paid experience proving maintenance and support of local area and wide area networks; or
- (b) An equivalent combination of education and experience as defined by the parameters above.

DUTIES: The work involves responsibility for working with Director of Information Technology or the Director of Health Information Systems to design, implement and support Local Area Network Systems including operating systems, server hardware network infrastructure and vendor supplies software. The incumbent is responsible for administration of multiple Local Area Networks. The work is performed under the general direction of the Director of Information Technology and the Director of Health Information Systems. The incumbent does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: The examination will consist of two parts: a rated evaluation of training and experience and a qualifying pc-administered test. You must pass the evaluation of training and experience in order to take the qualifying pc-administered test. You must pass both tests in order to be considered for appointment. Only your rating on the evaluation of training and experience will be considered when computing final scores.

Rated Evaluation of Training and Experience

You will complete a questionnaire that asks for specific information on your information technology education (formal degrees, IT-related training courses, certifications) and experience. You will also be asked to briefly describe a significant achievement in each of the job's areas and to provide the name and contact information for someone who can verify your information. The information you provide about your experience will be rated against the following areas:

Computer Programming
Help Desk/User Support
Network Administration
Data Communications
Microcomputer Repair

The Training and Experience (T&E) Questionnaire Instructions will be mailed to all approved candidates after the January 15, 2021 close of file date. The T&E Questionnaire should be completed on-line no later than February 15, 2021. Additionally, candidates will be given the PC-administered Qualifying Test as needed to fill positions after the completion of the T&E Questionnaire.

Qualifying pc-administered written test will be designed to test for knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

Logical Reasoning and Interpreting Instructions for Computer-Related Positions

These multiple-choice questions test for ability to reason logically and interpret instructions in a computer-related context. They cover verbal and quantitative reasoning, flowchart interpretation and applying written directions. The verbal and quantitative reasoning questions include logical implications (e.g., if A and B, then C) and relations (e.g., greater than). Knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division is necessary, but neither mathematical sophistication nor computational speed is needed. The interpreting instructions questions provide the instructions and specific rules for applying them. All the information needed to answer the questions is presented with the questions.

User Support and Training

This simulation exercise requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in a Help Desk support unit. Candidates will be presented with a user's problem. During the course of handling the problem, candidates will be required to: demonstrate communication skills, apply troubleshooting practices and tools, determine the appropriate level of training needed by the user, and educate the user on the proper use of computers.

Working Effectively with Others to Solve Job-Related Problems

This simulation exercise requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in an Information Technology work group who is working with colleagues during a time of change in policy or procedure, in a particular agency. During the exercise, candidates will be required to deal with obstacles within the working environment, which includes peer relations and the demands of handling multiple tasks. Candidates will be required to demonstrate the ability to be flexible, creative and persistent as a team player. They will also need to demonstrate the ability to cooperate, show initiative, and establish positive working relationships with peers and administrators.

Qualifying test scores may be banked and applied to future examinations for titles that require the same test plan.

SABBATH OBSERVERS/DISABLED CANDIDATES/MILITARY MEMBERS: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who having duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination for Civil Service employment by the State of New York or any of its subdivisions and who due to active military duty is deprived of the opportunity to compete in such examination shall be provided with an opportunity to compete, under terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the State Department of Civil Service or Municipal Commission, by way of a special military make-up examination.

This examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, Rules and Regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations will apply to this examination.

VETERANS: Disabled and non-disabled war veterans who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veteran credits with EACH application for examination. Candidates who wish to claim veteran credits on an examination should request an application and information sheet from the Wyoming County Civil Service Office. Veteran's application forms will also be available upon request at the examination center. The completed forms must be received before the eligible list for this examination is established in order to utilize additional credits.

Current members of the Armed Forces may apply for Veterans credits by filing an application for Veterans Credits (Form VC-1). Proof of military status must also be presented and verified in order for consideration of granting of conditional Veterans credit. Acceptable proof may include a military I.D. card, military orders, or others official military document that substantiates active military service at time of exam. This documentation and VC-1 Form must be received prior to the establishment of the Eligible List for this examination. The conditional status of the additional credits will remain until proof is provided indicating that the service was in time of war and that the veteran received an honorable discharge, or was released under honorable circumstances.

In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

CANDIDATES PLEASE NOTE: Your application for this test is part of the examination process. Applications must be completely filled out, with all pertinent information stated. Copies of your licenses, certificates, degree(s) plus transcript(s) are required when required in the minimum qualifications. The Civil Service Office does not refer to other applications on file for additional information. Applications which do not show training and/or experience to meet minimum qualifications will be disapproved.
