WYOMING COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE
PERSONNEL OFFICE
EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT

Child Care Program Coordinator

Exam #63615 OC

SALARY: Varies within school districts.

EXAMINATION TO BE HELD:

November 5, 2022

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED TO:

October 6, 2022 by 4:00 pm in this office or postmarked by 10/6/2022

ISSUED: September 6, 2022

LOCATION OF POSITION: The resulting eligible list for this examination will be used to fill vacancies as they occur in Wyoming County School Districts.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT: Candidates must have been legal residents of Wyoming County for at least one (1) month immediately preceding the date of the written examination, and must have continued their residency through the period leading to their initial appointment. Residents of an adjoining county, in a school district under jurisdiction of this Civil Service agency, meeting equivalent residency requirements, will be eligible for examination and for appointment in that district only.

CERTIFICATION: Preference in appointment may be given to candidates who presently reside in a civil division or district where the appointment is to be made in accordance with provisions of Sec. 23 (4-a) of Civil Service Law.

DUTIES: This position exists in a School District After-School Child Care Program and involves responsibility for planning, organizing, and supervising the activities of children in the program. The incumbent is also responsible for staff supervision, development and training. The work is performed under the general supervision of the Community School Project Director. Supervision is exercised over the work of subordinate child care staff. Does related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- (a) Possession of Bachelor's Degree in nursery education, child care, early childhood development, early child education, nursing, recreation, human services, or a closely related field; or
- (b) Possession of an Associate's Degree in nursery education, child care, early childhood development, early child education, nursing, recreation, human services, or a closely related and two (2) years of experience in a preschool child day care center or preschool or after school program involving planning and developing operating policies and procedures and/or educational/recreational activities; or
- (c) Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and four years of experience as defined in (b) above; or
- (d) An equivalent combination of training and experience as defined by the limits of (a) and (b) above.

Note: Your degree must have been awarded by a college or university accredited by a regional, national or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the US Department of Education/US Secretary of Education. If your degree was awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. A list of acceptable companies who provide this service can be found on the internet at <http://www.cs.ny.gov/jobseeker/degrees.cfm>. You must pay the required evaluation fee.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For others questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

2. Child development

These questions test for knowledge and understanding of child development. Questions may cover such topics as: psychological, social, and biological influences on a child's personality; family socialization; parent-child relationships; self-concept; normal and abnormal behavior; causes of problem behavior; influence of peers; educational and recreational activities; and the role of social interaction on cognitive development.

3. Fundamentals of child care

These questions test for basic knowledge and understanding of the principles and practices of providing proper care to children. Questions may cover such topics as care, safety, nutrition, health, growth, and behavior of young children; parenting skills and resources that are available to help parents; and programs that promote the healthy development of children.

4. Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivation and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Calculators are permitted unless otherwise notified at the examination site. Candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, "Spell Checkers," personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

SABBATH OBSERVERS/DISABLED CANDIDATES/MILITARY MEMBERS: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who having duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination for Civil Service employment by the State of New York or any of its subdivisions and who due to active military duty is deprived of the opportunity to compete in such examination shall be provided with an opportunity to compete, under terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the State Department of Civil Service or Municipal Commission, by way of a special military make-up examination.

This examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, Rules and Regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations will apply to this examination.

Current members of the Armed Forces may apply for Veteran's credits by filing an Application for Veteran's Credits (Form VC-1). Proof of military status must also be presented and verified in order for consideration of granting of conditional Veterans credit. Acceptable proof may include a military I.D. card, military orders, or others official military document that substantiates active military service at time of exam. This documentation and VC-1 Form must be received prior to the establishment of the Eligible List for this examination. The conditional status of the additional credits will remain until proof is provided indicating that the service was in time of war and that the veteran received an honorable discharge, or was released under honorable circumstances.

VETERANS: Disabled and non-disabled war veterans who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veteran credits with EACH application for examination. Candidates who wish to claim veteran credits on an examination should request an application and information sheet from the Wyoming County Civil Service Office. Veterans application forms will also be available upon request at the examination center. The completed forms must be received before the eligible list for this examination is established in order to utilize additional credits.
