WYOMING COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE
EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT
Exam #76624 PROM

Director of Environmental Health

SALARY: $76,696.00/yr

EXAM DATE: June 10, 2023

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED TO:
May 10, 2023 by 4:00 pm in this office or postmarked by 5/10/23

ISSUED: March 24, 2023

LOCATION OF POSITION: The resulting eligible list from this examination will be used to fill vacancies as they occur within Wyoming County Public Health Department.

CERTIFICATION: In county departments, certification for appointment will be given to candidates who are presently employed in the County Department where the vacancy exists first. The department in which the vacancy exists will be considered one entity and location for work site will not be discretionary for the candidate.

PROMOTIONAL REQUIREMENT: Candidates must have served continuously on a permanent basis under the jurisdiction of the Wyoming County Civil Service Office for at least five (5) years of competitive status as a Public Health Sanitarian and at a salary level below that of Director of Environmental Health.

SENIORITY is based on the length of continuous permanent classified service in the jurisdiction in which promotion is sought with points added to an eligible's passing score for each appropriate 5-year period or fraction thereof in accordance with the following schedule:

Less than 1 year.....	0 point
1 year up to 6 years.....	1 point
Over 6 years up to 11 years.....	2 points
Over 11 years up to 16 years.....	3 points
Over 16 years up to 21 years.....	4 points
Over 21 years up to 26 years.....	5 points

DUTIES: Plans, supervises, implements and guides enforcement of Environmental Health programs of the Health Department, ensuring activities are conducted in timely compliance with NYS and local code requirements. Work is performed under the general supervision of the Commissioner of Health, or designee, with considerable latitude and independence in performance of his or her duties in environmental health planning, program analysis and management. The Director of Environmental Health is responsible for training and supervising subordinate personnel, as well as keeping records and ensuring the Environmental Unit operates in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and with County and departmental policies and procedures. The Director of Environmental Health position is distinguished from Public Health Sanitarian by supervisory responsibilities. However, the incumbent may also perform any of the duties of a Public Health Sanitarian, particularly in more difficult or complex cases. Does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Ensuring effective inter/intra agency communications

These questions test for understanding of techniques for interacting effectively with individuals and agencies, to educate and inform them about topics of concern, to clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with the staff of one's own agency and/or that of other agencies in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Application of scientific principles and knowledge to public and environmental health protection

These questions test for knowledge of public and environmental health principles, the ability to investigate and identify the causes of various public and environmental health problems, and to recommend the appropriate remedial actions for such problems.

Program planning and evaluation

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in effective program planning and management and may include such areas as designing programs to achieve certain goals, staffing program activities, coordinating and guiding the progress of program activities, and evaluating the effectiveness of such programs.

Microbiology as related to disease prevention and control, sanitary chemistry, and toxic substances

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices of microbiology involved in disease prevention and control, including such areas as food, water and environmental sanitation, toxic substances, and communicable diseases.

Administrative supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.

Test guide:

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.

SABBATH OBSERVERS/DISABLED CANDIDATES/MILITARY MEMBERS: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who having duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination for Civil Service employment by the State of New York or any of its subdivisions and who due to active military duty is deprived of the opportunity to compete in such examination shall be provided with an opportunity to compete, under terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the State Department of Civil Service or Municipal Commission, by way of a special military make-up examination.

This examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, Rules and Regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations will apply to this examination.

Current members of the Armed Forces may apply for veteran's credits by filing an Application for veteran's Credits (Form VC-1). Proof of military status must also be presented and verified in order for consideration of granting of conditional veteran's credit. Acceptable proof may include a military I.D. card, military orders, or others official military document that substantiates active military service at time of exam. This documentation and VC-1 Form must be received prior to the establishment of the Eligible List for this examination. The conditional status of the additional credits will remain until proof is provided indicating that the service was in time of war and that the veteran received an honorable discharge, or was released under honorable circumstances.

VETERANS: Disabled and non-disabled war veterans who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veteran credits with EACH application for examination. Candidates who wish to claim veteran credits on an examination should request an application and information sheet from the Wyoming County Civil Service Office. Veteran's application forms will also be available upon request at the examination center. The completed forms must be received before the eligible list for this examination is established in order to utilize additional credits.

In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.
